

A black and white photograph of a large, multi-story building with a prominent central tower and many windows, likely a government or institutional building. The building is viewed from a low angle, emphasizing its height. The sky is clear and light-colored. The building's facade is light-colored with numerous rectangular windows. A central section rises slightly higher than the rest of the building, forming a tower. The overall style is that of a mid-20th-century architectural photograph.
